Vietjet officially releases audited financial statements for H1/2026

Revenue growth aligned with annual plan
According to the audited financial statements, separate revenue reached VND 45.030 trillion (approx. US$ 1.72 billion) in H1/2026, witnessing 26% increase YoY and completing 58.5% of the full-year target. Consolidated revenue reached VND 51.536 trillion (approx. US$ 1.97 billion), up 44%, accomplishing 59.4% of the annual plan.
Separate profit after tax stood at VND 1.126 trillion (approx. US$ 43.2 million), while consolidated profit after tax reached VND 1.372 trillion (approx. US$ 52.6 million), completing 55.9% and 64.5% of the annual targets, respectively.

As of June 30, 2026, Vietjet's total consolidated assets reached VND 149.093 trillion (approx. US$ 5.72 billion). The net debt-to-equity ratio was maintained at 2.36, with a liquidity ratio of 1.36.
In the first six months, Vietjet paid over VND 3.950 trillion (approx. US$ 151.6 million) of taxes and fees to the State budget.
Such positive business performance was driven by passenger transport growth, international route expansion, and measures to enhance operational efficiency and cost control.

International network remains growth driver
In H1/2026, Vietjet transported over 13.4 million passengers across 72,000 flights while cargo volume reached nearly 41,000 tons.
Vietjet currently operates 213 routes, including 46 domestic and 167 international routes. During H1, the airline further expanded connectivity to Australia, China, Sri Lanka, the Philippines, Kazakhstan, and the Czech Republic, strengthening its international presence while bridging Vietnam with major economic, trade, and tourism hubs.

Fleet investment solidifies long-term growth capacity
Vietjet maintains its investment strategy in new-generation aircraft, with a total order book of nearly 600 aircraft, laying a solid foundation for network growth over the coming years.
In H1, Vietjet signed agreements for Pratt & Whitney GTF engines to equip 44 Airbus A320neo aircraft and arranged financing for 12 Boeing 737-8 aircraft.
At the Singapore Airshow 2026, Vietjet, as a founding member, announced the Asia-Pacific Aviation Finance Center, aimed at connecting international financial institutions, investors, and aviation enterprises to bolster aviation financing capabilities in Vietnam.

Enhancing international brand equity

According to Brand Finance, as of May 2026, Vietjet's brand value reached US$ 906 million.
In the first half of the year, Vietjet received remarkable international recognition for safety, service quality, workplace environment, and sustainable development. It was named among Vietnam's Top 50 Listed Companies by Forbes Vietnam and Top 50 of the Corporate Sustainability Awards. Cirium recognized Vietjet as the most emissions-efficient airline for intra-Southeast Asia routes.
Vietjet was also voted by international passengers at the Flyers' Choice Awards 2026 by AirlineRatings and recognized at the Korea Consumer Awards in categories covering airline business models, culinary experience, and service excellence.

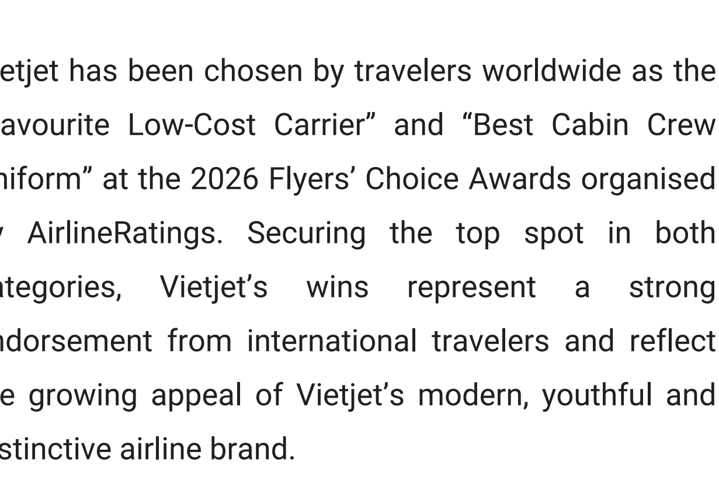
Vietjet tops the List of Private Aviation and Logistics Enterprises contributing the most to Vietnam's State Budget in 2026

Vietnam Largest Taxpayers 2026 (VNTAX 2026), a ranking recognizing enterprises that make significant contributions to the State budget, has announced and congratulated Vietjet on securing the top spot among private enterprises in the Aviation and Logistics sector for the largest budget contribution in Vietnam in 2026. This achievement acknowledges Vietjet's contributions to the State budget and the Vietnamese economy, while affirming the growing role and stature of leading private enterprises in the country's new era of development.

Vietjet strengthens engagement with international investors

In August 2026, Vietjet participated in two major investment conferences in Singapore: Citi's 2026 ASEAN Summit: Singapore Edition on 13–14 August and HOSE-Daiwa Vietnam Corporate Day Singapore 2026 on 25 August. The events brought together listed companies, institutional investors, private equity funds and international financial institutions, providing a platform for direct engagement on Vietnam's market and investment opportunities.
At the events, Vietjet's Finance Director, Nguyen An Phu, together with representatives from the Company's Investor Relations (IR) and Finance teams, participated in 1:1 and small-group meetings with investors to share updates on Vietjet's business performance, development strategy and growth outlook, while addressing investors' interests in the aviation sector and the Company.

Vietjet celebrates major wins at the Flyers' Choice Awards 2026, affirming its global brand appeal



Vietjet has been chosen by travelers worldwide as the "Favourite Low-Cost Carrier" and "Best Cabin Crew Uniform" at the 2026 Flyers' Choice Awards organised by AirlineRatings. Securing the top spot in both categories, Vietjet's wins represent a strong endorsement from international travelers and reflect the growing appeal of Vietjet's modern, youthful and distinctive airline brand.
Determined entirely by travelers' votes, the two awards recognize not only Vietjet's distinctive brand identity but also the value it delivers every day through an extensive network, modern fleet, affordable fares, and an inspiring travel experience.

Celebrating the Vietnamese national football team's championship victory and the aspiration to soar higher

ASEAN HYUNDAI CUP 2026 FINAL
26 AUGUST 2026

Amidst the electric atmosphere at My Dinh Stadium, a special moment captured a meeting between Chairwoman Labor Hero Dr. Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao; FIFA President Gianni Infantino; and VFF President Tran Quoc Tuan. One frame. Three journeys. All united by a shared aspiration: to elevate Vietnam's standing on the global stage.

Also in the stands at My Dinh, another beautiful moment unfolded as Chairwoman Dr. Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao reunited with Madam Pang (Nualphan Lamsam), President of the Football Association of Thailand (FAT). Two successful women and friends, united by their love for sports and football, shared a spirit of living wholeheartedly for their convictions.

To honor this victory and the championship win, Vietjet awarded the coaching staff and players of the Vietnamese national football team a one-year privilege of flying SkyBoss, both domestically and internationally across the Vietjet Group network, as a tribute to the warriors who fought with all their might to bring glory to the nation.
