

NEWS & EVENTS

Prime Ministers of Vietnam and Cambodia congratulate the inauguration of Vietjet's new route Hanoi - Siem Reap

On December 15, 2023, Vietjet welcomed the first flight connecting the capital Hanoi with the heritage city of Siem Reap, Cambodia. Previously, the opening ceremony of the Hanoi - Siem Reap route took place in Hanoi in the presence of Vietnamese Prime Minister Phạm Minh Chính and Cambodian Prime Minister Hun Manet, leaders of ministries, and businesses of the two countries. Cambodian Prime Minister Hun Manet congratulated and appreciated Vietjet's opening of the direct flight Hanoi - Siem Reap, hoping that Vietjet would open more routes connecting Vietnam and Cambodia in the near future.

Chairman of the National Assembly attended the signing ceremony of cooperation between Vietjet Air and Lao Airlines

On December 4, Vietjet signed a comprehensive cooperation agreement with Lao Airlines and announced the opening of a new flight connecting the capital Vientiane, Laos with Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. The event took place in the presence of Vietnam Chairman of the National Assembly Vuong Dinh Hue and Laos Vice Chairman of National Assembly Southonne Xayachak, leaders of ministries of the two countries.

Vietjet breaks through - pioneers - develops sustainably in 2023

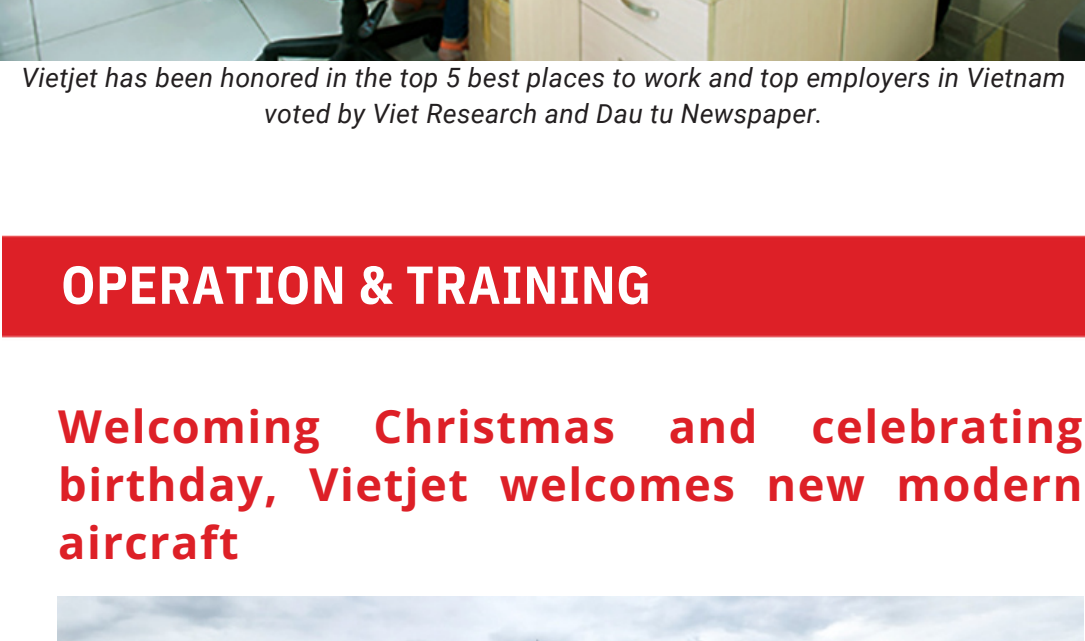

Vietjet's birthday celebration with the theme "Fly Green, Fly Global with Vietjet" took place with the participation of President and Chairwoman Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao, Dr. Nguyen Thanh Hung, CEO Dinh Viet Phuong, board of management, members of Vietjet, group, domestic and international partners.

Vietjet at COP28 about green and sustainable development cooperation

At the World Climate Action Summit within the framework of the 28th Conference of United Nations's Convention on Climate Change (COP28), Sovico and Vietjet signed agreements with international partners to enhance green and sustainable development.

Vietjet - A desirable working environment in Vietnam

Vietjet has been honored in the top 5 best places to work and top employers in Vietnam voted by Viet Research and Dau tu Newspaper.

Operation & Training

Welcoming Christmas and celebrating birthday, Vietjet welcomes new modern aircraft

On the occasion of Christmas and celebrating the anniversary of its first taking-off (December 24, 2011 - December 24, 2023), the new-age carrier Vietjet welcomed the new-generation A321neo ACF aircraft, the 102nd aircraft, to its young and modern fleet. This is not only a meaningful gift for Vietjet but also offering more flying opportunities for passengers, contributing to convenient travel during the year-end and Tet holiday.

Vietjet Cargo honored the top 10 excellent agents of 2023

On December 12, Vietjet Cargo held a ceremony to honor and award the top 10 best agents of 2023. The ceremony was attended by Vice President Do Xuan Quang, Vietjet Cargo Managing Director Nelson Au and related departments. The award is a recognition of the efforts and contributions of agents in recent years with Vietjet Cargo, creating new steps in the air cargo market. Vietjet Cargo leaders believe that the current sustainable and good cooperation will be the foundation for strong development in 2024.

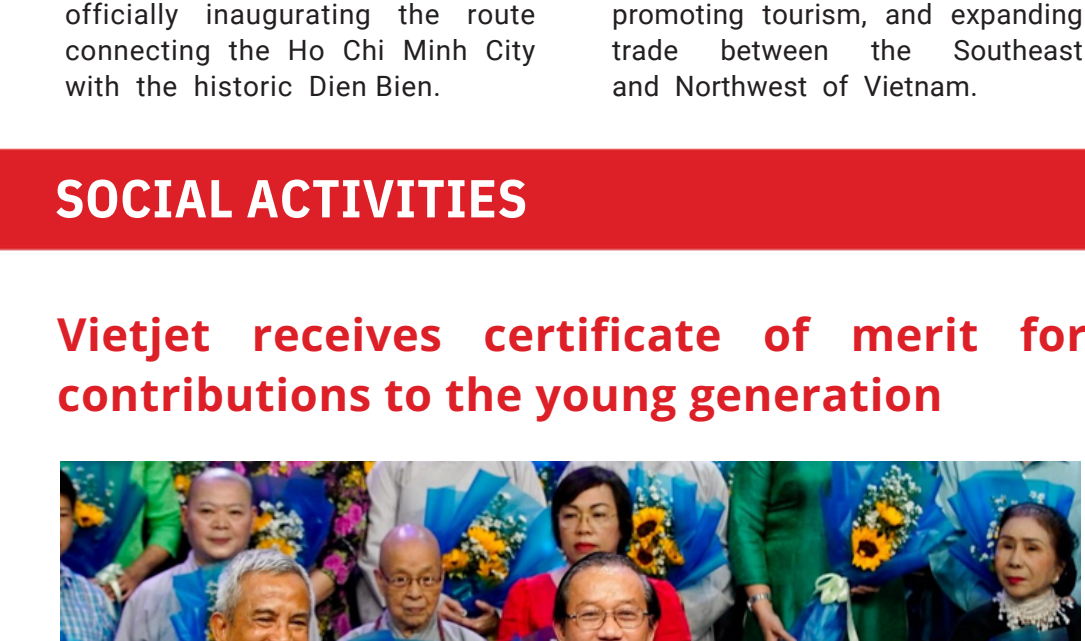

Commercial Activities

Vietjet welcomes the inaugural flights between Shanghai and Ho Chi Minh City

On December 01, Vietjet inaugurated a new route connecting Shanghai with Ho Chi Minh City. Attending the new route inaugural ceremony were Mr. Wei Huaxiang - Consul General of China in Ho Chi Minh City, Mr. Nguyen The Tung, Consul General of Vietnam in Shanghai, leaders of Ho Chi Minh City Department of Tourism, airport leaders, and representatives of both countries.

Vietjet launches new flight routes to Jakarta and Busan

Continuing Vietjet to fly globally and celebrating the tourism and year-end festivals, on December 10, Vietjet inaugurated two new international routes: Hanoi - Jakarta (Indonesia) and Phu Quoc - Busan (South Korea), linking Vietnam's top destinations to popular destinations across the region. In Hanoi, the Indonesian Ambassador to Vietnam, Mr. Denny Abdi, along with airport and Vietjet's leaders, congratulated on the direct route connecting Hanoi, the capital city of Vietnam, to Jakarta, the Indonesian capital city and welcomed passengers on the flight. Further expanding the flight network between Vietnam and South Korea, Vietjet's Phu Quoc - Busan route was inaugurated with the warm welcomes from both localities and customers.

Vietjet's aircraft bearing tourism symbol lands in Dien Bien

The Vietjet aircraft representing the image of the Vietnam national flag and bearing the tourism symbol of Ho Chi Minh City has landed in Dien Bien on December 02, officially inaugurating the route connecting the Ho Chi Minh City with the historic Dien Bien.

Social Activities

Vietjet receives certificate of merit for contributions to the young generation

At the "Spring Journey to the Forest and to the Sea" 2023 program organized by the Vu A Dinh Scholarship Fund - Club "the beloved Hoang Sa - Truong Sa" on the morning of December 9, 2023 in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietjet received a certificate of merit from the Navy Command for contributions to the young generation of Vietnam on the path to knowledge and becoming useful people for family and society.

Celebrate Christmas with Vietjet with a series of meaningful activities

Another Christmas season came with so much love, joy and hope. Vietjet's cabin crew offered passengers interesting gifts with warm wishes. Moreover, passengers also enjoyed a special Christmas feast with exquisite dishes at an altitude of 10,000 meters.

Exciting with the expanded Vietjet Champions Football Cup 2023

On December 21-22, the 1st Vietjet Champions Football Cup 2023 with the competition of 15 teams from units, departments and airline partners took place in Ho Chi Minh City. The tournament was organized to celebrate Vietjet's birthday, creating opportunities for brothers and sisters to interact and increase bonds between units. Teams with strong competitive spirit and sportsmanship brought exciting matches to the championship. After two days of competition, the team from the Vietjet Ground Service (VGS) successfully won the tournament championship.

The Chairman of the National Assembly proposes the Thai Government continue supporting Vietjet's activities in Thailand

On December 8, on the occasion of an official visit to Thailand, in a meeting with Thai Prime Minister Srettha Thavisin, Minister of Transport and Leaders of the Aviation Department, National Assembly Chairman Vuong Dinh Hue proposed that the Thai government continues to support Vietjet's activities in Thailand, increasing flight frequency between the two countries, quickly supporting procedures to create conditions for Vietjet Thailand to develop further, contributing to further promoting number of flights between the two countries and growth in tourism, trade and investment between the two countries in ASEAN.

The delegation of the Ministry of Transport of Kazakhstan visited and worked with Vietjet

On December 12, Deputy Minister of Transport of Kazakhstan - Talgat Lastayev led a delegation to visit and work with Vietjet. Talking with Vice President Nguyen Thanh Son and Vice President Do Xuan Quang, Deputy Minister Talgat Lastayev highly appreciated the role of Vietjet's routes connecting Vietnam with Kazakhstan in promoting economic, culture, tourism exchange between the two countries. He wishes and is willing to support the airline to continue expanding flight network to Kazakhstan in the near future.

Enhanced training course for pilots

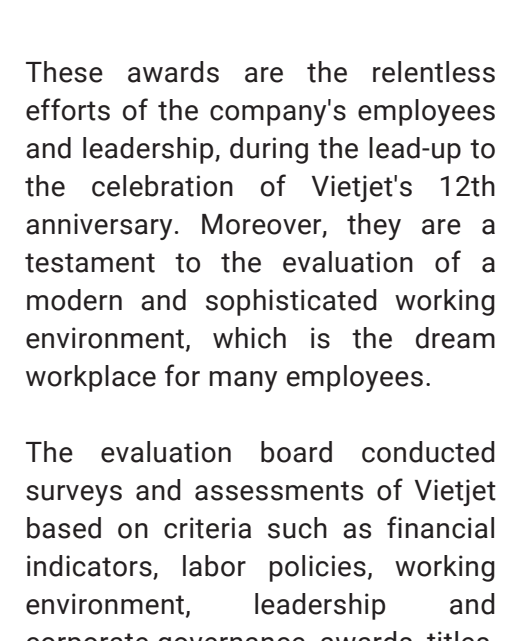

Recently, Vietjet organized the FAST - Final Approach Standardization Training to enhance knowledge and operational skills for pilots. The training program emphasizes standardizing the final approach to ensure consistency and efficiency in operations, thereby improving operations safety indicators and providing the best experience for passengers.

Enhanced training course for pilots

Vice President Luong The Phuc believes that with their experience and professionalism, the pilots and cabin crews participating in the course will soon integrate into Vietjet culture and contribute to common development.

Vietjet Aviation Academy opens training course for new pilots and cabin crews

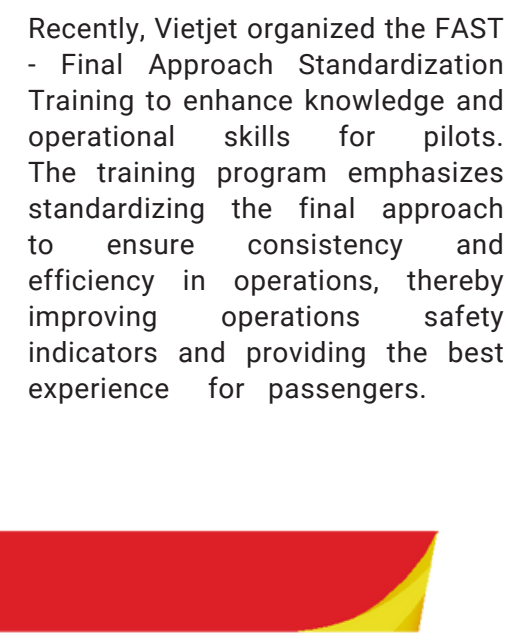

On December 12, Vietjet Aviation Academy (VJAA) organized the opening of the AOC training course for experienced pilots and cabin crews. Vice President Luong The Phuc along with VJAA leaders and the Flight Operations Division attended the ceremony and welcomed new trainees to join the Vietjet family. AOC training course is an operator transfer training program for experienced pilots and cabin crews who wish to contribute to the development of Vietjet.

Vietjet inaugurates a new flight route Hanoi - Hong Kong

On December 22, 2023, Vietjet inaugurated a direct route connecting the capital city of Hanoi to Hong Kong (China), respond to the travel demands of both people and tourists during the Christmas season and year-end festivities. The Hanoi - Hong Kong route is operated with 3 return flights per week on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. This is Vietjet's 4th flight to Hong Kong after routes connecting Ho Chi Minh City, Da Nang, Phu Quoc with Hong Kong.

Vietjet Thailand operates flights to Shanghai and Hangzhou

The first passengers on the flights connecting Hanoi and Hong Kong were warmly greeted by Vietjet's crews and received delightful souvenirs, free Sky Care insurance...

Vietjet Thailand operates flights to Shanghai and Hangzhou

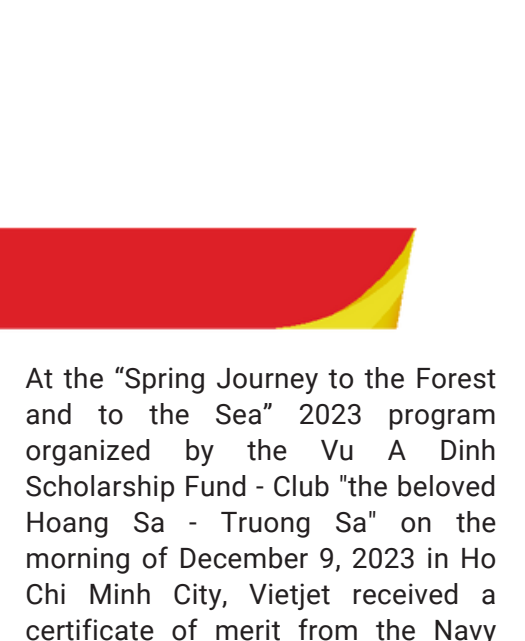

On December 7, Vietjet Thailand officially opened two new routes from Bangkok to Shanghai and Hangzhou (China, contributing to promoting tourism activities between Thailand and China, with new open visa policy. At Shanghai International Airport, passengers on the flights were warmly welcomed to China with special souvenirs from Vietjet Thailand.

Vietjet Thailand operates flights to Shanghai and Hangzhou

The office decoration around with the theme "Christmas around the world" also found the most outstanding units, with impressive works bearing the typical marks of destinations in Vietjet's extensive flight network and the unique characteristics and personalities of each department.

Vietjet Thailand operates flights to Shanghai and Hangzhou

Along with that, through the program "Merry Christmas - connecting with love", gifts from Vietjet's employees were also sent to orphans and lonely elderly people at Anh Dao Shelter (Ninh Hoa, Khanh Hoa). The gift is the Vietjet family's sharing and spreading love to difficult and disadvantaged situations in society.