

NEWS & EVENTS

Vietjet announces a direct flight between Ho Chi Minh City and Brisbane

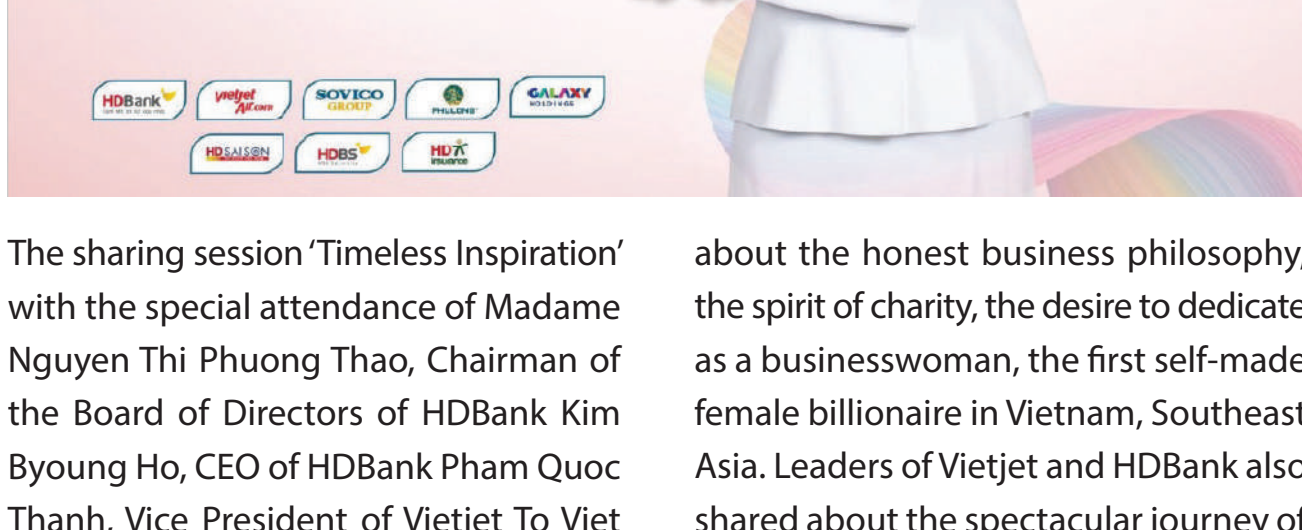

On June 4, 2023 Vietjet has announced the first direct route connecting HCMC and Brisbane (Australia) under the witness of Vietnamese Prime Minister Phạm Minh Chính and Australian Prime Minister Anthony Albanese, and representatives of leaders, enterprises and people of the two countries.

After Melbourne and Sydney, Brisbane is the third city of the beautiful country Australia that Vietjet has operated direct flights. It's also the first route connecting Vietnam to Brisbane and Queensland state with 2 return flights per week on wide-body A330 modern aircraft, which will contribute to promote the trade between Vietnam and Brisbane, Queensland state and Australia in general, together with further develop bilateral relations in future.

Celebrating the President & Chairwoman Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao's birthday with a special inspira-tional event

The sharing session 'Timeless Inspiration' with the special attendance of Madam Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao, Chairman of the Board of Directors of HDBank Kim Byoung Ho, CEO of HDBank Phạm Quốc Thanh, Vice President of Vietjet To Viet Thang, were held and live-streamed to more than 40,000 employees of the group.

about the honest business philosophy, the spirit of charity, the desire to dedicate as a businesswoman, the first self-made female billionaire in Vietnam, Southeast Asia. Leaders of Vietjet and HDBank also shared about the spectacular journey of overcoming the pandemic, strong development and future orientations to become the leading enterprises.

Vietjet signs a memorandum of understanding on cooperation with Lao Airlines

On May 31, Vietjet and Lao Airlines signed a memorandum of understanding to cooperate in aircraft maintenance, human resource development and other fields to increase the efficiency of aviation operations between the two airlines and open up new opportunities in the context of the world's aviation constant development with the Asia-Pacific region as a bright spot.

CEO Dinh Viet Phuong and President of Lao Airlines Khamla Phommavanh signed a memorandum of understanding in the presence of representatives of aviation authorities of the two countries and airlines.

INVESTOR RELATION

Vietjet attended the IATA 2023 annual conference with many good results

From June 4-6, Dr. Nguyen Thanh Hung, CEO Dinh Viet Phuong and Vietjet delegation attended the annual conference of the International Air Transport Association (IATA) in Istanbul, Turkey, along with leaders of more than 300 global airlines.

to implement of the airline's climate commitments s through the continuous addition of new aircraft, saving fuel and reducing emissions to the environment. Vietjet also had discussions with leaders of major global corporations and airlines such as Airbus, Boeing, Safran, CFM, P&W, China Airlines, Japan Airlines, Turkish Airlines, Pegasus, Cathay Pacific... to promote cooperation, develop and expand the flight network.

At the conference, IATA leaders assessed aviation activities in 2023, in which Vietjet is one of the impressive airlines with a rapid recovery and strong growth, making positive contributions

The Paris Airshow 2023 ended successfully with many good

The Paris Airshow 2023 took place last week at Le Bourget airport, Seine-Saint-Denis district, Paris capital (France) with the world's leading aircraft, engine manufacturers, airlines.

Vietjet's delegation participating in Paris Airshow 2023 achieved many good results, continued to have cooperations with leading partners such as Boeing, Airbus, Safran, CFM... ready for development steps, plan to expand the flight network around the world. Vietjet also has signed an agreement with Safran to order 24,000 seats for the new fleet at Paris Airshow 2023.

Vietjet has the best onboard service in the world in 2023

Vietjet has been honored as the 'Best Low-Cost Air-line Onboard Hospitality for 2023' for the first time and named again as 'Best Ultra Low-Cost Airline 2023' for the 5th year in a row. The double international awards were selected by AirlineRatings, the world's renowned airline safety and product rating website.

The airline is recognized for its newly launched SkyBoss Business class with all priorities and premium services on wide-body A330 aircraft. AirlineRatings has also rated Vietjet at seven-star level, the highest ranking for aviation safety in the world and the world's Top 10 safest and best low-cost airlines for many years.

Vietjet attended to the MayBank Invest ASEAN 2023 Conference in Singapore

From 20-21/6, Vietjet delegation participated at the annually-held Invest ASEAN 2023 organized by MayBank IBC with more than 350 globally reputable investors and financial institutions.

Topics at the conference include President Xi's Third Term, US-China-Russia Relations, ASEAN's growth and potential as well as sustainable growth in the future.

At the conference, Vietjet was highly praised for its remarkable recovery in the post Covid-19 period and the route network expansion to Australia, India. Vietjet delegation had meeting with potential investors and received optimistic response related to investment opportunities.

OPERATION AND TRAINING

Vietjet welcomes the 7th wide-body Airbus A330 aircraft

On June 23, Vietjet's fleet continued to have a new member, the 7th A330 wide-body aircraft. The new aircraft with out-standing features of fuel saving and emission re-duction, environment-friendly, contributing to improving operational efficiency and saving costs.

In particular, the new aircraft A330 will meet the plan to increase the frequency of flights to Australia, expand the flight network to further destinations in the region and the world.

Vietjet cooperates with Lilama 2 International College of Technology

On June 9, Vietjet Aviation Academy (VJAA) and Lilama 2 International College of Technology signed a Memorandum of Understanding on cooperation in training in the fields of aviation engineering, ground operations, and dispatch ... in the presence of Vice Chairman of Dong Nai Provincial People's Committee Mr. Nguyen Son Hung.

The signing of a memorandum of understanding with Lilama 2 is part of VJAA's strategy of expanding training cooperation, in order to meet the company's high-quality human resource needs as well as the domestic and international aviation market.

VJGS and Noi Bai Border Gate Police held a Travel Documents Workshop

On June 9, the Vietjet Ground Services (VJGS) and Vietjet Aviation Academy (VJAA) cooperated with Noi Bai Border Gate Police to organize a Travel Documents Workshop.

The workshop updated new regulations on travel documents for more than 100 VJGS employees, as well as enhanced coordination between VJGS and Noi Bai Border Gate Police to bring convenience and ensure safety, standards and quality of passenger service.

Vietjet Thailand opens flights to Mongolia

Vietjet Thailand started operating flights connecting Bangkok and Mongolia's capital Ulaanbaatar from June 4, 2023 in the form of charter flights. The flights will be operated every Sunday. Customers can book tickets through vz.charter@vietjetair.com.

COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES

Vietjet launches the program "Vietjet pampers passengers – Strive our best"

On June 2, the program "Vietjet pampers passengers – Strive our best" was officially launched throughout the company, ready to enter the peak period of 2023 with high determination from all departments. CEO Dinh Viet Phuong, COO Mr. Michael Hickey and Vice President Mr. Nguyen Thanh Son attended the event along with representatives of "frontline" departments.

"Vietjet pampers pas-sengers – Strive our best" continues the success of 4YourSmile campaign to bring customers good fly-ing experiences, full of smiles and happiness. The program demonstrates Vietjet's strong commitment and determination in terms of outstanding service quality, meeting all the demands of local and foreign passengers.

Accompanying AusCham's May Sundowners

On June 2, Vietjet accompanies AusCham Vietnam to organize the AusCham's May Sundowners program for nearly 100 travel partners in Ho Chi Minh City. Commercial Director Nguyen Bac Toan introduced Vietjet's routes being exploited, connecting Vietnam and Australia, quality products and services, and attractive incentives exclusively for Australian routes.

Vietjet pampers passengers for comfortable flights with Sky Care insurance!

To increase the wonderful experience on international flights across five continents, from June 06, 2023, Vietjet pampers passengers, offering especially a comprehensive insurance package Sky Care for passengers on direct flights.

With Sky Care insurance package, passengers are fully insured on the entire flight journey with benefits including reimbursement of medical expenses incurred due to accidents or illnesses, flight-related problems, and global travel and medical support services 24/7. Total value of insurance benefits is up to VND100 million. Passengers who successfully purchase tickets and fly any international flights will be insured.

Vietjet Thai land launches 'Fly with Pride' promotion

To celebrate LGBTQ+ 'Pride Month 2023', Vietjet Thailand launches the 'Fly with Pride' promotion, offering special fares from only THB 666, 66 for its entire domestic network.

Vietjet Thailand cooperates with Centara to offer promotion to customers

On June 16, Vietjet Thailand officially cooperated with Centara Hotels & Re-sorts, offering special promotion for customers of both sides.

Vietjet Thailand customers have the opportunity to get 19% discount on room rates at Centara Hotels & Resorts system when registering for CentaraThe1 membership and booking at Centara's website. Besides, CentaraThe1 members will receive a 20% discount when booking domestic and international flights at Vietjet Thailand's website.

Check-in online to fly easily, don't worry about queuing!

Vietjet's online check-in system is ready to serve passengers flying domestic and international. With just one click and simple steps, passengers can quickly check-in online before the flight at Vietjet Air website or mobile app, choose your seat and be ready for a comfortable flight, without waiting in line at the check-in counter. Passengers can check-in online for all domestic flights from 24 hours to 1 hour before the departure time. For international flights, the online check-in service has been applied to airports including Noi Bai, Melbourne, Sydney (Australia), New Delhi, Ahmedabad, Mumbai (India) and continue updating the next airports at the airline's website. Online check-in is available from 24 hours to 90 minutes before the departure time.

Vietjet discusses more routes opening to Thua Thien Hue

On May 30, Commercial Director Nguyen Bac Toan and Vietjet's delegation had a meeting with Standing Vice Chairman of the People's Committee Nguyen Thanh Binh and representatives of de-partments and agencies of Thua Thien Hue province.

At the meeting, provincial leaders suggested that the two sides study and sign a comprehensive strategic cooperation agreement, focusing on increasing frequency and route opening to Thua Thien Hue.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Jubilantly celebrating Children's Day June 1, Vietjet brings unexpected joy to the little ones

Celebrating the International Children's Day June 1st, on the flights full of joy, Vietjet offers young passengers surprising gifts, creating special childhood memories for the little angels. Vietjet's young passengers can experience the virtual reality cockpit with a pilot, along with many gifts and good wishes from the crew, spreading joy, happiness and positive energy to all passengers.

Relaxing yoga, comfy flights

Accompanying the Indian Em-bassy in Vietnam on the In-ternational Yoga Day, Vietjet offers passengers the experience of yoga with Indian instructors on board and a series of activities in 35 provinces and cities throughout Vietnam, spreading joy and positive energy to its passengers.

In addition to flights bringing passengers to all destinations in New Delhi, Mumbai, Ahmedabad, Kochi (India) to experience the home of yoga, Vietjet also welcomes passengers to all the scenic spots in Vietnam to practice yoga and improve health.