

NEWS & EVENTS

Welcome the new year 2025 with Vietjet

At the sacred moment of transition between the old year and the new year, Chairwoman Dr. Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao and CEO Dinh Viet Phuong sent best wishes and meaningful messages to the Vietjet family.

In the letter, Chairwoman Dr. Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao affirmed: "We will fly further. We will fly with the dream of flowers. And together we will turn that dream into a bright future, where everyone can fly, where we bring happiness, connect the world and preserve the best values of humanity. Let's celebrate the end of a proud year and welcome a new era."

CEO Dinh Viet Phuong expressed his deep gratitude to the continuous efforts of all Vietjet employees and believed that: "With the spirit of innovation, joining hands to build the country in the era of national development, Vietjet continues to increase the fleet, open new destinations, increase frequency with better service quality on green, safe, fuel-efficient and environmentally friendly flights."

New Director of the Civil Aviation Authority of Vietnam visits and wishes Vietjet a Happy Lunar New Year

On the afternoon of January 16, the working delegation of the Civil Aviation Authority of Vietnam (CAAV) led by Director Uong Viet Dung visited and wished Vietjet employees a Happy Lunar New Year at Vietjet Plaza. The leaders of the CAAV congratulated the airline on its good results over the past time. Director Uong Viet Dung congratulated Vietjet and believed that Vietjet would continue to fulfill its mission of conquering the sky and helping Vietnamese aviation reach further, bringing the image of Vietnam to develop in the international arena.

On behalf of Vietjet, CEO Dinh Viet Phuong sincerely thanks CAAV Director Uong Viet Dung and the CAAV for always supporting and accompanying Vietjet throughout the past time, and pledges to make every effort to contribute to the good development of the aviation industry.

Welcome the spring with Vietjet everywhere

Sovico provides consultancy for surveys and master planning to develop aviation in Laos

On January 9, at the Vietnam -Investment Cooperation Laos Conference 2025, Vientiane (Laos), witnessed by Prime Minister Pham Minh Chinh and Lao Prime Minister Sonexay Siphandone, Sovico Group and Transport Design Consulting Corporation announced а consulting contract for surveying and master planning of the project to develop the airport system in Laos for the period until 2030, with a vision to 2050 to the Lao Ministry of Transport and Public Works and Lao Airports Corporation.

Billionaire and Vietjet founder meets strategic partners at Mar-a-Lago

From January 9 to January 11, 2025, a high-ranking delegation from Vietjet, led by Chairwoman Dr. Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao, visited the United States to meet dozens of strategic partners from around the world. The meetings took place at the Mar-a-Lago estate during the "Friends of Vietnam Summit," an event dedicated to Vietjet and other Vietnamese delegations, aimed at fostering bilateral and multilateral cooperation. The delegation arrived in Miami aboard Vietjet's inaugural flight to the U.S., operated by a wide-body aircraft. milestone This marked significant achievement for Vietjet and underscored the strengthening of comprehensive strategic ties with the United States.

Deputy Prime Minister highly appreciates the cooperation between Vietjet and COMAC

Two days before the Lunar New Year, Chairwoman Dr. Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao visited Vietjet staff and leaders of Tan Son Nhat International Airport management agencies on the occasion of the lunar new year 2025.

From the morning of the first day of Tet. Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors Nguyen Thanh Ha, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors Nguyen Anh Tuan, COO Michael Hickey, Vice President Nguyen Duc Thinh joined the flight crew at airports to welcome passengers with bright smiles, send New Year wishes and give lucky gifts to passengers on the first flights of the new year.

The leaders also visited. encouraged, wished a happy new year, and gave lucky money to the staff on duty at all airports and on flights during the Lunar New Year.

On the afternoon of January 15, Deputy Prime Minister Tran Hong Ha received Mr. Tan Wangeng, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Commercial Aircraft Corporation of China (COMAC). CEO Dinh Viet Phuong also attended the reception. The Deputy Prime Minister highly appreciated the achievements in production, business and efficiency of COMAC as well as the desire to cooperate with Vietnamese airlines, including Vietjet.

The Prime Deputy Minister assigned the Ministry of Transport to and coordinate with relevant agencies to urgently review current legal regulations, propose and recommend amendments in the actual accordance with situation to support the process of COMAC putting aircraft into operation in Vietnam.

Airline news

On January 25, Prime Minister Pham Minh Chinh chaired a meeting of the Government Standing Committee on the progress of the Long Thanh International Airport Project with the participation of leaders of relevant ministries and departments. Prime Minister emphasized that the Central Government has just concluded that the Long Thanh International Airport Project must be completed in 2025, so relevant ministries, units and localities must be proactive and must not delay the progress.

Airlines lease additional aircraft and increasing flights to meet high demand during Tet 2025. The booking rate for domestic flights during Tet is rapidly increasing, especially flights from Ho Chi Minh City to nearby destinations are almost fully booked.

During the 2025 Lunar New Year holiday, approximately 3.6 million passengers passed through airports nationwide, setting а record. Key airports with significantly increased numbers passenger compared to the same period in 2024 include Tan Son Nhat International Airport with nearly 1.38 million passengers (up 7.6%), Noi Bai International Airport with around 900,000 passengers (up Nang 12%), and Da International Airport with over 381,000 passengers (up 26%).

The Ministry of Transport has approved the task of planning Gia Binh Airport, approved partial adjustments to the Master Plan of Da Nang International Airport, and clarified the procedures for including Mang Den Airport and Van Phong Airport into the planning. Con Dao Airport and Ca Mau Airport will welcome larger aircraft after the completion of the airport expansion projects.

INVESTOR RELATIONS

Vietjet named amongst the world's safest airlines for 2025

Vietjet, along with leading low-cost airlines in the world such as Ryanair, easyJet, and Frontier Airlines, has proudly ranked among the top 10 for many consecutive years. This achievement underscores the airline's exceptional commitment to flight safety, ensuring peace of mind for both passengers and crew.

AirlineRatings has also awarded Vietjet a sevenstar safety rating, the highest available, recognizing the airline's consistent commitment to safety since 2018.

OPERATION & TRAINING

Vietjet and F Air flight school signed a pilot training agreement

On January 20, Vietjet and F Air flight school (Czech Republic) signed a cooperation agreement on pilot training witnessed by Prime Minister Pham Minh Chinh and Czech Prime Minister Petr Fiala.

According to the cooperation agreement, F Air will participate in basic flight training for pilots under the multi-crew pilot license (MPL) program of Vietjet Aviation Academy (VJAA) in the Czech Republic according to EASA standards to meet the demand for high-quality pilots specialized for the Vietnamese aviation industry in particular and the region in general.

Vietjet adds 4 aircraft to serve the peak season of Lunar New Year 2025

VIAA receives certificate for of merit outstanding achievements in CRS training

COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES

Discover India with Vietjet's two new routes to Bangalore and Hyderabad

Conference to deploy 2025 plan

In the first days of 2025, Vietjet has expanded its fleet with four wet-leased aircraft to meet the demands of people and tourists during the peak season of Lunar New Year. The aircraft arrived in Vietnam on the night of January 8 and immediately operated on both domestic and international routes, especially prioritizing busiest routes from the South to the North, and other ones serving passengers traveling for Spring festivities.

On January 13, CEO Dinh Viet Phuong presented a certificate of merit to Vietjet Aviation Academy (VJAA) for its outstanding achievements in CRS training in 2024. The award recognizes and honors the efforts of VJAA's technical faculty, instructors and staff in developing high-guality technical human resources, training CAT A/B engineers for AMO, contributing to the airline's sustainable development.

Expanding continously its flight network connecting Vietnam and India, a country of 1.4 billion people, Vietjet has opened sales for two new routes to Bangalore and Hyderabad, operating 78 flights per week to serve demands of people and tourists.

The flights connecting Ho Chi Minh City with Hyderabad will inaugurate on March 18, 2025, with two return flights per week on Tuesdays and Saturdays. The flights connecting Ho Chi Minh City with Bangalore will inaugurate on March 19, 2025, with three return flights per week on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

On January 3, in Can Tho City, Vietjet held a conference to deploy the 2025 plan with the participation of city leaders, departments, and more than 100 agents and partners from 13 provinces in the Mekong Delta.

conference The reviewed the outstanding achievements of the past year and deployed the action plan for 2025. Vietjet will continue to accompany the locality, expand connections with domestic and international destinations. bring flight opportunities to people and tourists with outstanding products and services.

PRODUCTS & SERVICES

Discount on Skyboss & Business class on the 20th of every month

Lively India, the more you fly the more you fall in love, let's Vietjet!

Vietjet launches new routes to Beijing and Guangzhou, celebrates the new year with VND0 ticket promotion

Fly internationally to Vietnam and celebrate the spring festival with 50% off from Vietjet

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Vietjet presents SkyAward to students at RMIT

Vietjet and the Kitchen Gods bring a festive Tet atmosphere on special flights

As the cooperation part of program between Vietjet and RMIT University (Australia), Vice President Nguyen Thi Thuy Binh had a meeting with future pilots and presented SkyAward to outstanding graduates the of school year.

The SkyAward was presented by Vietjet to 5 students with the most outstanding achievements at RMIT with the opportunity to experience flights between the largest city in Australia and Vietnam.

On flights on the 23rd of the Lunar New Year month, Vietjet not only brings passengers to reunite with their families but also brings a warm space, meeting Kitchen Gods and Spring fairies and shares memorable moments to welcome the new year.

Vietjet also presents passengers with lucky red envelopes and a calendar with an environmental protection message as а meaningful wish for the new year.

Welcoming the New Year 2025 with joy and excitement with Vietjet

Welcoming the New Year 2025, Vietjet brings passengers flights that are not only filled with joy and surprises but also serve as a bridge to spread the spirit of humanity and connect good values. Vietjet Cabin Crews in traditional costumes of India, China, Japan, South Korea and Malaysia surprised passengers with vibrant dances to welcome the New Year.

www.vietjetair.com